

Talking to a cancer patient

@colorado.jelena

WHAT TO SAY

I Love You

I'm sorry you have to go through this

I'm here to listen

Can I bring you dinner tomorrow?

Would you like for me to take you to any of your appointments?

I'm thinking about you

Would you like to come to . . .

WHAT NOT TO SAY

At Least . . .

Let me know if you need anything

You'll be fine

Don't worry, It's not a big deal, It could be worse

Everything happens for a reason

My aunt's neighbor had the same cancer and they died

That's the "good" kind of cancer

Tomorrow isn't guaranteed . . .

You should . . .

They lost their battle
